HOAGLAND'S NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING! W. E. COOPER HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive Carriage Factory, Corner of Second and Morrison Streets. He respectfully refers to the following CARD. Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. K. Hoagland we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used. It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient safe and secure. It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

HORNE'S PATENT SINCH FASTENER! CAN BE USED ON PACK RIDING AND SIDE Saddles. Act in connection with the saddle on a line as tight as the girth will ease. It is very simple and certain to keep the saddle in its place. Can be used on Mexican, Texan, California, Oregon, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Washington Territory, British Columbia and Russian Saddles. Address J. W. GEARHART care of Messrs. Hunt & Staples by A. Ballard Newark N. J. We respectfully refer to the following Card. Having carefully tested the New Patent Finch or Body Fastener for sale by C. R. Morris of Astoria Oregon we take pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is one of the easiest, best and most effective method of tightening a saddle girth that has ever been in use. It also has an advantage over all others in use in being able to tighten your saddle girth without dismounting.

[DISPATCHES TO THE REGISTER]

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 24.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON March 21. In the Senate All but from the Committee on Military Affairs reported a bill providing for the investigation of arms among the Southern States and fixing the jurisdiction under existing laws passed.

Wilson from the same Committee reported without amendment the bill to enable the Secretary of War to revise the general regulations of the government of the army.

Spencer introduced a bill providing that Supervisors of Internal Revenue shall be appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate referred to the Committee on Finance.

The report of the Judiciary Committee in the case of Gen. Ames the Senator elect from Mississippi was taken up. Morton thought the matter ought to be disposed of at once. After a conversational debate between several Senators it went over until to-morrow.

The Senate resumed consideration of the Georgia bill.

Howell and Ferry opposed Drake's military assessment amendment. Howard proposed to modify the amendment so as to make municipalities liable for outrages. Yates Nye and Thayer introduced amendments to Drake's amendment.

The Senate then went into executive session remained an hour and adjourned.

To confirm Bradley for Supreme Judge the first vote stood 45 to 9. Subsequent changes made it 48 to 6. Several Senators of the opposition did not vote. The Southern Senators were present except Warner. Robins is paired with Drake. The Democrats voted for Bradley. The confirmation was transmitted to the President immediately on a motion which was reconsidered.

In the House a large number of bills were introduced and referred among them a bill for the promotion of commerce and amity between the people of the United States and Mexico by inducing American citizens to aid the Mexicans in the development of their resources.

Resolutions were adopted directing the census takers to obtain statistics of the surviving officers soldiers and widows of the war of 1812 also asking the Secretary of the Treasury for particulars regarding bonds purchased for the sinking fund and on account of the liquidation of the public debt.

The section condemning the present unequal distribution of national currency as unjust to the West and South, and favoring an increase of circulation was offered and referred to the Committee on Banking and Currency, the House refusing to second the previous question on its adoption.

Williams offered a resolution declaring it the duty of Congress to provide for funding the national debt at a lower rate of interest and to extend the time for its payment to a period when it will be less oppressive to the people but that the legal tenders or non interest bearing debt should not be funded, adopted.

Holman offered a resolution declaring that the policy of land grants to corporations ought to be discontinued, and that every consideration of public policy and justice to the whole people requires that the public lands should be held for exclusive homestead and pre-emption purposes adopted.

Stokes reported a bill for taking the Ninth Census and moved the previous question refusing to yield to accept an amendment providing for the apportionment of members of the House of Representatives. The previous question was ordered and the bill passed. It requires the obtaining of information in regard to insurance and railroad companies.

Dawes, from the Committee on Appropriations reported a bill appropriating $20,000 to the Sisters of Mercy at Charleston, South Carolina, for the purpose of rebuilding their Orphan Asylum burned during the war. Passed under suspension of the rules, ayes 110 noes, 46.

The bill providing for the retention of Judge Watson, of Texas on full salary was reported from the Judiciary Committee and passed.

A resolution calling on the Commissioner of Revenue for information relative to the Tice meter was adopted.

Schenck, Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, gave notice that he would move to close the general debate on the tariff bill and ask one night of the session to reply. He said the committee was at work on the funding bill all their leisure moments and he hoped they would be ready to report at an early day. When ready they would report whether the tariff bill was disposed of or not.

The Committee on expenditures for public buildings have directed an investigation into the manner in which expenditures are made in the public buildings particularly those under the supervising architect.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the tariff bill, and was addressed by several members.

Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Senate to-day confirmed Bradley as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and General Pleasanton as Collector of Revenue in the second New York District, vice Bailey removed. The Senate also confirmed a number of appointments and promotions in the naval and marine corps. G. H. Butler was confirmed as Consul General for Egypt the motion to reconsider being defeated.

Movements of Revenue Officers.

Supervisor Cowan lately on duty in California is to be assigned on Revenue duty in the southern District of Ohio vice Clarke resigned. Collector Bonnifield has returned from New York. He has no doubt that Collector Bailey has left the city. The Internal Revenue officers are making every effort to find out the extent of the frauds. Deputy Commissioner Douglas left to-day to take entire charge of the examination.

Bill for the Government of the Indians.

The House Committee on Indian Affairs have completed a bill to organize a system of governing the Indian tribes etc. It divides the Indians into three classes those on reservations self sustaining those on reservations as far advanced in agriculture as the first and those off reservations. It provides for dividing the territory into four districts, with one general superintendent to each and one agent for one or more tribes in charge of the general superintendents. No more Indian treaties are to be made or ratified. The bill meets the views of Secretary Cox and Commissioner Parker.

An Indian Council Called.

FORT SMITH Ark. March 21. A council of the Choctaw Nation is called for the 21st of April to consider the best plan of breaking up the reservation of the Indians as a people.

Investigation in the Bailey Case.

NEW YORK March 21. The investigation of the affairs of Collector Bailey of this city this chief deputy was arrested on Saturday night and released on bail to day. He professes to be willing and necessary at the investigation of the affairs. Said deputy admits that the accounts of the office as far as found correct. Cashier to-day Internal Revenue Attorney Phelps has found up to the present time a deficiency of $100. Many believe Bailey will be able to make it good. Others think he has left the country.

From Venezuela.

A vessel from Caracas brings the news of the death of James Baker late United States Consul at La Guayra.

The Venezuelan merchants have organized a league for protection against existing state and municipal excessive taxes.

Attempted Assassination at Key West.

KEY WEST March 19. A dastardly attempt was made at the assassination of Isaiah Reed here on Saturday to assassinate one of the witnesses to be used against the murderer of Coe Anderson. The wound inflicted is severe but not considered mortal. Several Spaniards who came from Havana are armed and are suspected of complicity.

A Short Sighted Policy

Of late a vigorous effort has been making Washington to cause the discontinuance of the liberal system of aids for railroads, under which the country has been prospering so greatly during the past twenty years This movement is put on the ground that the Government ought not to squander its lands by granting them for such purposes

It is however, a totally mistaken idea that the Government squanders its domain by granting alternate sections of public land to railroads No land is lost to the country or to the people by such a policy, but by it new regions are opened for settlement, prosperous homes are established and the wealth of the country is immensely increased The Government, as a matter of business and profit, has never since its foundation made such judicious and valuable investments as when it gave its lands for the promotion of Western railway enterprise This policy has not actually done more than anything else to build up the whole country. The East as well as the West has prospered by it And it is nothing more than just that certain portions of the country, among which we include our own State, that have not received their share of these benefits, shall yet obtain them

It is a well known fact that the settlement of agricultural lands in all the more remote and inaccessible parts of the country has dependent almost wholly on the granting of lands whereby railroads have been constructed. Along the route traversed by the Illinois Central lands would still be lying in a state of nature, had it not been for the grant which caused that road to be built The only hope for the settlement of the country lying along the proposed Northern Pacific route is in the construction of that road by means of the land grant it has obtained. To continue this judicious railroad system a few years longer will result in the development of most of the remaining portions of the country which are yet lying unimproved and unoccupied. We do not believe that the short-sighted policy of stopping this system of internal development can prevail. There will be such a demand for it to go forward that Congress cannot refuse to take the necessary action

[illegible] Democratic [illegible] Reporter [illegible] Democratic [illegible] are fully on hand to the impulse of the political campaign now opening, and are already beginning to work with unwonted rigor and energy. The party is every way stronger and more confident than it was two years ago, and there are the best of reasons for this hopeful view [illegible] everything was manifestly the Republican party [illegible] out the Union was on trial before the people, and the result, to say the least, was by many considered distinctly doubtful. Timidity thus pervaded the Republican ranks, and even the stoutest members of the party fought misgivingly. This year the contest is under decidedly better auspices Republicans know that their power through the country at large is seriously established; they have the cordial support of an Administration which is exceptionally strong and popular; they feel the inspiration of success which arises from their connection with the great party which is conducting the Government so successfully, and they are no longer in doubt as to the views of the country regarding the measures and policy of the great Republican party. Naturally, therefore, the Republicans of Oregon are entering the present contest with more buoyancy and confidence than characterized them in the campaign preceding the last general election. The very slender majority by which the State was carried by the Democrats in the Presidential election gives reasonable ground to hope that, with the new immigration into our State, and the general prestige of Republican success throughout the country, a Republican triumph may be secured in Oregon next June. It is gratifying to learn from all parts of the State that the spirit of the Republican party is high, and that a determination to work and win possesses the organization There is, indeed, every reason for encouragement. Republicans seem to need little exhortation to work. They are generally going at it with a will, without exhortation.

An Unprofitable Controversy.

Where is the sense in continuing, as some are trying to do, the obsolete controversy between the "east side" and the "west side" about the original land grant to aid a railroad from Portland south through the Willamet valley? What can be the further result of such a controversy but to injure the interests of Oregon? That particular grant has either gone to the "east side" or has reverted to the Government; and now the thing to be aspired to is to secure such a grant for the "west side" as will help it to a railroad. Here is the object to work for, and the unnecessary and unprofitable war between the two sides of the valley which some are trying to prolong is directly inimical to the accomplishment of it. They are not the unselfish friends of the "west side" who would continue this strife; they are for the most part political schemers who hope to obtain party advantage by it. The great interests of Oregon cannot grow except in conjunction with each other. If they are to clash and fight perpetually; if the special advocates of each are resolved to make war on every other enterprise and continue it to the bitter end, the result will be most unfortunate for our State Certainly in this particular case nothing whatever can be gained by trying to keep alive a controversy so long after the sole reason that ever existed for such a controversy has passed away

Editorial Notes

The United States Senate don't want to take San Domingo with its $15,000,000 of debt. This is prudence That debt has been increased about three-fold since we began to talk about annexing the island It has been put up for a swindle, clearly

The Herald is teeming day by day with abuse of Mr. Sinnott, a well known and honorable man of this city, whose offence is that he is engaged in legitimate business connected with the railroad If that paper thinks it can make anything by such a course it can go on, but will find that Mr Sinnott has friends enough who will resent it in a way that will tell to some purpose when the time comes

The editor of the Commercial has seen a letter from Senator Williams, dated March 7th, in which it is stated that Mr Johan Chairman of the House Committee on Public Lands has given assurances that he will at the appropriate time report to the House the bill which has already passed the Senate to grant lands in aid of the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville railroad. The Commercial still says that the wisest thing Mr. Smith can do is to support this bill as it is rather than to hazard its defeat by any amendments

Ex Senator Hendricks of Indiana a Democratic aspirant for the Presidency is traveling through the South on a tour of evangelization To the more ignorant and less independent blacks he talks in the style of a superior being to the more acute and penetrating he crooks the pregnant hinges of the knee in abject and unworthy pleading The sum of both methods is that the negroes should vote the straight Democratic ticket

Says the Corvallis Mercury Senator Williams took away from the people of Polk Benton and Lane counties a land grant which would have insured them a railroad and not gone into the counties on the east side of the river Indeed! But is there not a chance for some mistake here? If the people of Polk, Benton and Lane counties were robbed of a land grant as the Corvallis Mercury asserts was not the act perpetrated by the late Democratic Legislature Democratic in both branches? And did not the only Democratic member from Benton assist in taking the grant away from his county? And again, was not Senator Williams' agency in the matter the means of saving a grant that otherwise would have been lost to the State? And still again, is not this all there is of it?

The Herald asks "Why don't the Republican papers publish the infamous bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment? When ever a bill to enforce the amendment becomes a law we will publish it, and the authorities will enforce it too And then what will you do about it? The bill however which the Democratic press of Oregon is trying to get up so much indignation about, is too ridiculous ever to become a law It was gotten up by Nye of Nevada, the "funny man of the Senate, and has not been heard of in that body since it was first introduced Some Democratic papers assert that it has passed the House, but we have seen no record of the kind At all events it will never become a law The Senate Judiciary Committee is now engaged in preparing a bill to enforce the Amendment, which will be reported as soon as the article is officially proclaimed Nye's ridiculous bill is not a bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment, for that Amendment gives no authority for such measures as the bill proposes There would be no more authority under the Amendment for an act of such a description than there would be [illegible] the Constitution without the Amendment We [illegible] to keep cool, Republicans will carry them safely through all [illegible]

[illegible] How [illegible] party of [illegible] Democracy stand out to work on the Railroad, and [illegible] considerable advance, bilked their employer But the Statesman cannot see that any great shrewdness is exhibited in that, nor is the proceeding so uncommon among that ilk as to require a column of leaded matter to celebrate the exploit."

Says the Salem Press "Another election may determine whether we are to be a free or subjugated people, whether our liberties may be maintained by the ballot, or must be regained by the bayonet." All through the war Beriah Brown was piping the same doleful refrain through his Press at San Francisco, but somehow, in defiance of his prophecy, we are not yet a "subjugated people."

Upon taking charge of the Corvallis Gazette, Mr. S L Simpson, formerly a Democrat, makes use of the following language. The Democratic party has not made a point in ten years and never will It is a party without a soul and without a creed. It professes what it does not believe, and believes what it dares not profess Its embrace has withered good policies and noble principles. Men turn with loathing from all that it has touched The shadow of the world's progress has fallen upon it, and to-day it sits half an age behind the rushing car of History, shattering a lash gauge no man knows." We do not know how the Democratic party could have been better or more fittingly painted

From what we hear from Polk county, the Democracy have been having a high old circus there for the last few days. A correspondent says Ben. Hayden has carried the county all his own way and is swearing the most terrible things about Grover and Miller of Salem, and threatening to teach them that he is not dead yet in Polk. The correspondent adds "The rival candidates, the members of the Convention, and the Democracy generally, are in a lively mood and high spirits, for they have been publishing each other in the Republican as "liars" and settling little personal matters in a personal way yesterday and to-day We are having much blood, hair and the ground torn up, at the present time"

How to Judge Books.—Would you know whether the tendency of a book is good or evil examine in what state of mind you lay it down. Has it induced you to suspect that what you have been accustomed to think unlawful may, after all, be innocent, and that that may be harmless which you have hitherto been taught to think dangerous? Has it tended to make you dissatisfied and impatient under the control of others; and disposed you to relax in that self-government, without which both the laws of God and man tell us there can be no virtue, and consequently no happiness? Has it attempted to abate your admiration and reverence for what is great and good, and to diminish in you the love of your country and your fellow creatures? Has it addressed itself to your pride, your vanity your selfishness, or any other of your evil propensities? Has it dazzled the imagination with what is loathsome, or shocked the heart with what is monstrous? Has it disturbed the sense of right and wrong which the Creator has implanted in the human soul? If so—if you are conscious of all or any of these effects—or if having escaped from all you have felt that such were the effects it was intended to produce, throw the book in the fire, whatever name it may bear in the title page! Throw it in the fire, young man, though it should have been the gift of a friend, young lady away with the whole set, though it should be the prominent furniture of a rosewood book-case —Southey

West Point Loyalty —The following has just been issued from the War Department

Of the whole number of living graduates both in and out of the Army when the rebellion commenced, 67 had been appointed from the Free States and 33 per cent from the Slave States and of these 78 per cent. remained loyal and 22 per cent. joined the Rebellion Of the whole number of officers in the Army when the Rebellion commenced 74 per cent remained loyal and 26 per cent joined the Rebellion. Of the graduates, 76 per cent remained loyal and 24 per cent joined the Rebels, while of those appointed from civil life to the Army 70 per cent, remained loyal and 30 per cent. were disloyal Of the graduates in the Army from the Rebel States 25 per cent remained loyal and 2 per cent joined the Rebellion, of the non graduates in the Army from the Rebel States 26 per cent remained loyal and 74 per cent joined the Rebellion Of the graduates in the Army from the Loyal Border States 71 per cent remained loyal and 29 per cent were disloyal, of the non graduates 69 per cent were loyal and 40 per cent. disloyal Of the graduates in the Army from the Free States 97 per cent. remained loyal and 3 per cent joined the Rebels of the non graduates from the Free States the record is the same Of the graduates in the Army from the District of Columbia 78 per cent were loyal and 22 per cent. joined the Rebellion, of the non graduates from the District 91 per cent were loyal and 9 per cent. disloyal. An Eastern commentator discovers that Nebuchadnezzar invented the popular game of old sledge because he got his living on all fours for seven years

The Rochester Express states that a juvenile Brook Farm Community has been lately discovered in that city The details of its operations are too shocking for publication

An old lady has been discovered in Portland Me who in her younger days refused to marry Daniel Webster on account of his using strong drink She still remains single

An ice merchant in Massachusetts who had been watching his pond all winter with almost prayerful interest in hopes of a freeze visited it recently after a sharp cold night stepped on the ice and finding that it would bear him exclaimed Thank God! Going still further in the pond he exclaimed more fervently Thank God but on venturing a trifle further and going through up to his neck he ejaculated louder and heartier than ever D—n the ice!"

It is pleasing to find an influential paper like the Louisville Courier Journal declaring that it is idle to pass laws and make appropriations for the encouragement of immigration into Kentucky until she can boast a common school system as inviting as that of the competing States It says that the State instead of receiving large accessions from the skilled and educated agriculturists and artisans of Europe has lost the annual increase of its own population by emigration to the region of common schools

An English editor indulges in some very amusing reflections on the fact that a "poor hawker of Blyth is the father of thirty eight children The inconveniences of such a formidable number of pledges of affection he says are obvious To express a hope that they are all quite well" would be absurdly to ignore the law of sanitary averages Even the christenings of such a progeny may well have taxed the invention of sponsors Seventh sons are sometimes called "Septimus" tenth sons Decimus," and so forth but "Duodequadragesimus" would undoubtedly have an ugly sound

A favorite pastime with the New York Aldermen is that of toying with the pavements According to the New York Tribune, the putting down and taking up of the concrete pavement yielded a rich profit to the "city fathers," who have also voted themselves additional plunder in the resolution (passed on Monday) to pave Fifth avenue with the Stafford pavement, and to experiment in other streets, with the "Stow," the "Robbins," the "Paul," and the National" "foundation" The Tribune further adds that "if anybody else has a patent pavement that will yield a handsome profit in putting down, and a swill in taking up, let him 'see' the Al

The report that the Secretary of the Treasury has ruled that all land grants to railroads must be located on air lines, unless natural barriers intervene, that the Northern Pacific Railroad Company had been obliged to change its route materially and stop surveys is denied Secretary Boutwell has not only not made any such decision, but he has had no authority to do so, the land grants to railroads being solely within the control of the Secretary of the Interior, who, also has not made any such rule Instead of the Northern Pacific road altering its plans or stopping its surveys, it is progressing through Minnesota to the Red River with the greatest attainable certainty and speed

The San Diego Gold Field

FAVORABLE REPORTS FROM THE MINES—NOT MUCH WORK DONE—NEARLY A THOUSAND MEN PROSPECTING — EXPERIENCED MINERS WANTED — TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES—A NEW TOWN LAID OUT

[From the Alta March 19]

San Diego, March 17, (via Los Angeles, 18th) —The reports from the mines are still favorable Four different ledges, bearing gold in considerable quantities, have been struck and several others showing ore with small sprinklings of gold on the surface Very little work has been done, but two or three shafts have been sunk, and these only ten or fifteen feet deep, one is on the Washington ledge, one on the Heyden, and one on the Lincoln, each developing rich rock, nearly equal to the first discovery

Placer mining is carried on in but few localities with fair results There are now probably about 800 or 1,000 men prospecting in the mountains

The weather for the last week has been stormy and unfavorable. But few persons have as yet returned, consequently very little authentic news can be gathered, nearly all speak with confidence in the future success of the mines One thing is quite certain the mining district is extensive and full of quartz and needs experienced miners to develop it Plenty of timber and water in sufficient quantities for milling purposes are at hand

Two mining districts are now formed, one called the Coleman and the other the Julian districts A meeting of the miners of the Julian district was held on Saturday last to form a code of laws after appointing a committee of twelve, they adjourned till Thursday (to day)

Several stages and wagon lines are running from here to the mines, distance about 60 miles, fare from $6 to $10

Business here is reviving and many new buildings are in course of erection

The steamer Orizimme arrived yesterday with about 120 passengers, many of them have already left for the gold fields

Work has been commenced on a new road from this city to the new mines, by way of the Cajon ranch, which will shorten the distance about 25 miles

The stockholders of the toll road from here to Fort Yuma held a meeting last evening and elected officers and resolved to immediately commence work and complete it, at the earliest possible moment

The steamship Continental is just entering the harbor

Los Angeles March 17 —A full stage left for the new mines to day the second that has started the next will leave on the morning of the 20th. Small Hardy came from the Julian District this afternoon with G H Matfield the first who left the city for the mines they came through in fifty hours The rush from all points is about seventy five daily arriving, and very few returning The following ledges show good rock Washington, San Diego, Hayden, Kate and Kelly

Gold can be seen in the quartz from the crop pings down, free from sulphurets or base metal, all found in talcose slate, running southeast and northwest The ledges are, at the surface from ten inches to two feet wide The shafts where sunk show wider ledges below ground The owners for the most part, are unable to work their claims extensively, and have not even sufficient tools The placers yield very fine gold, and some small nuggets have been taken out

It is not thought they will give steady or more than paying wages for an extended time work with rockers will be short A town has been laid out called Julian after the district, lots sold at from $20 to $100 provisions are plenty and cheap lumber can be hauled from San Diego for $50 per thousand, no buildings are yet erected

San Diegoans are in force prospecting the district It is thought by many to be equal in extent and richness to any ever discovered dirt from any of the foot hills will show gold A company of men will prospect the range eighty miles south into Lower California Gold has been recovered by the Padres taken from this vicinity long before the discovery in 1848

Nothing leaves us as it found us If a sheet of paper upon which a key has been laid be exposed for some minutes to the sunshine and then instantaneously viewed in the dark the key being removed a faded spectre of the key will be visible Let this paper be put aside for many months where nothing can disturb it and then in darkness be laid on a plate of hot metal the spectre of the key will appear This is equally true of our minds Every man we meet every book we read, every picture or landscape we see every word or tone we hear leaves its image on the brain Those traces, which under ordinary circumstances are invisible, never fade but in the intense light of cerebral excitement start into prominence, just as the spectral image of the key started into sight on the application of heat It is thus with all the influences to which we are subjected

The Eugene municipal election will take place April 4th

Two of the P T Co's steamers reached Eugene last week

Groups have appeared in the hills at the head of the valley

The Eugene City Council has reduced the price of liquor license from two hundred to one hundred dollars per annum

The Eugene Journal says Geo B Dorris has withdrawn from his candidacy for Prosecuting Attorney for the 2d District

A fire at Oregon City on Monday evening did some damage to Henry Humbel's brewery The fire department of the city turned out in haste and promptly extinguished the flames before much damage was done

In the issue of the Corvallis Gazette of last Saturday Mr W B Carter takes from all leave on a valedictory and Mr S L Simpson announces himself as well written salutatory The name of the paper is to be changed

A few nights since the store of George Boren at Cottage Grove Lane county was burglarized to the extent of about three hundred dollars worth of goods There is now a man in jail on suspicion of knowing more than anybody else about the matter

From the Corvallis Gazette —A colony of some twenty five Democratic importations pollutes the air of Soap Creek There is much disaffection among the Democracy of Benton county The second annual fair of the Corvallis College will close on the 25th inst

The Democratic ticket for Wasco county is as follows Representatives G S Savage and Jas Fulton Sheriff James Bird Clerk A Holland Treasurer Robert Grant Commissioners E P Fitzgerald and P Wingate Assessor B Schutz School Superintendent D D Stephenson

From the Salem Statesman —Mr P Chappel living a few miles below town was seriously injured a few days since by a rolling log which went over and crushed him The son of Mr Frank Glover had a leg broken at the saw mill the other day by getting it caught between the carriage and the log way

Michael Ryan who died of hemorrhage of the lungs at Oregon City on Monday evening, was taken to the Phoenix Hotel before he expired He was a respectable young man but a stranger in a strange land His death occurred instantly after answering a question that had been asked him respecting his want of a physician

Dalles items, from the Mountaineer A man by the name of Colwell, from the country, was robbed on last Saturday night of $72 50 at Dutch Kate's saloon Immigrants with large bands of young cattle and sheep continue to arrive daily from below Mr M Hoffman is going to Amoor river Asia, to engage in business The weather last week was the stormiest of the winter

The following is a [illegible] of the [illegible] last letter received daily by Col Drake, Secretary of the Board of Statistics "Dear Sir Having seen one of your valuable pamphlets containing a description of the climate soil and productions of Oregon, I am so favorably impressed with it that I desire you to send one dozen copies: I wish to distribute them among my friends Many here are intending to emigrate this season to a more genial climate Any information that we can obtain through your association will be thankfully received I will trouble you with a few questions What are the prices for horses, oxen and cows? Under the head of 'Sunshine and Showers,' I notice many days—are they thunder showers? I will add a few words on the weather here, (Minneapolis, Minnesota) Ice froze two inches thick on the 8th of November last, and it is now twenty-four to thirty inches thick on the Mississippi river In February the thermometer was 30 degrees below zero To-day (March 8d) it is snowing fast, with two feet on the ground There will be two or three of us to start for your State this spring, for the purpose of finding homes for ourselves and friends If we are united, there will probably be one hundred families added to Oregon from here within twelve months"

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

Within the last two weeks five burials took place from the Catholic church at Walla Walla

John Carroll, who had a leg broken some three or four weeks ago, near Walla Walla, by being thrown from a horse, has since died from the effects of his injuries

A correspondent at Delta says It has been snowing for the past few days most of the time The snow is now from ten inches to a foot deep The weather is moderating The coldest was the night of the 13th inst, when the mercury was at 1 degree below zero

Carrier-Pigeons on Sea Going Steamers —It has been stated that had there been carrier pigeons on the steamship City of Boston, the uncertainty of whose fate keeps so many people on both sides of the Atlantic in very painful suspense we should in all probability have long ago known of the cause of her delay in reaching port

Audubon relates an instance of carrier pigeons having reached New York from Carolina a distance of not less than 850 to 400 miles, in less than six hours He argues from this that they could visit Europe at this rate under three days No such length of flight, however, would ever be required, because if all transatlantic passenger steamers were compelled by law to carry them, they would naturally be furnished with birds domiciled on both continents, and in the hour of danger the bird belonging to the nearest land would be loosed

Over legislation in reference to passenger vessels has continually occupied Congress and frequently hampered enterprise Which of our public men will render a real service to the whole community and earn possibly at no distant date the thanks of a crew saved by his intervention by introducing a bill which will pass and become a law at once, making the carrying of these messengers of hope imperative on all sea going steamers?

CITY.

SOUTH AMERICAN EMIGRATION SCHEME On the 10th inst., allusion was made in these columns to the proposed scheme of emigration to Buenos Ayers. Since then we have seen and conversed with Mr A S. Mercer, the prime mover in the enterprise, and learn from him that it is proposed to organize a stock company of eight men, who will put in $500 each with which to purchase a cargo of lumber for the Rio de la Plata, and take passage in the vessel carrying out the lumber, for the lumber, it is expected that the cargo will sell for a sum sufficient to pay the charter, which will refund the original eight men their money making their passage free The Buenos Ayeran Government is a Republic modeled after our own and is well established by its people free from the bickerings and rebellions so common in most of the South American Republics The political horizon has not been disturbed since 1845 Lib eral inducements are held out to foreign emigrants and land (Argentine Americans) in the way of land grants (Argentine Americans) in the way of land grants from the Government protection Situated between thirty and forty south latitude, the climate is free from extreme heat and entirely without freezing cold. As to healthfulness of climate, it is admitted by all travelers and writers who have visited there, that the country bordering on the lower La Plata is the freest from malaria and all fevers of any in the Western hemisphere. Being destitute in a great measure of timber, the country presents one vast extent of open grazing lands, called the pampas of Buenos Ayres, and rich silkwist lands, estimated by Brackenridge, in 1819, to be capable of sustaining at least a hundred millions of souls The pampas are less fertile than the other portions covered with a dense growth of nutritious grasses particularly adapted to stock raising, affording both food nor shelter have ever to be provided. Wool growing is found to be most profitable, while New York and the cities of the Old World afford a constant market, and the wonderful increase of cattle, horses, sheep, vegetables and fruits that flourish in temperate and semi-tropical climates, are well known. The geographical position is seen to be favorable, and the great rivers offer suitable means of transportation Thousands of ships are annually, carrying cargoes of wool and hides, and bringing lumber and merchandise Millions of acres of land lie in a state of nature, and this influx of an active population is required to develop the country to the highest degree of first class proportions We discover no good reason for any Oregonian to emigration hence to Buenos Ayres, as this region only needs what is [illegible] to make it a much [illegible] but if any person wishes to go [illegible] one of Mr. Mercer's presents a call on us yesterday, Mr [illegible] have six men ready to join [illegible] and if two more will [illegible] suitable vessel can be [illegible] early in May. Our purpose is to have [illegible] who will band together for [illegible] up hope institutions, settle [illegible] upon the stock business [illegible] made up, good men who will [illegible] for one hundred and

VICTORIA.—We are informed by [illegible] that Mrs Bates is, there [illegible] Victoria among play goers. The [illegible] says: "Into every character she assumes she infuses a certain [illegible] and expression that identifies her with that part, and causes her for the time being to lose her individuality Thus, in [illegible] before us the gay yet suffering [illegible] in Love Chase we have the jolly [illegible] in Grimaldi, we have the dear [illegible] irrightly named from the 'Vicar [illegible] at Home's gifts. Violet we can [illegible] 'real Mrs Bates' most powerful impersonation [illegible] a role that requires animation, [illegible] which the lady has engrafted. The enthusiasm of the [illegible] great, and culminated at the [illegible] when Mrs. Bates was called [illegible]

[illegible] two days past four persons have applied [illegible] at the labor exchange.

ATTEMPTED LARCENY.—Last evening a petty thief, [illegible] by the name of Harris, was nipped [illegible] stealing, whilst in the act In [illegible] he was found secreting a [illegible] by a Front street merchant who [illegible] to the police, who, in turn, took their [illegible] to the lockup, as he was making for the [illegible] with a box of candles Harris [illegible] to be a very lately, and being a somewhat [illegible] personage, has not been [illegible] much at any time as he may [illegible] he was lodged in jail last even [illegible] evidence now against him is not [illegible] up for a term at Salem, we [illegible] will not be a great while until he [illegible] other quarters of his stamp [illegible] the city officials

[illegible] FOR A PLACE.—Persons looking [illegible] a farm ought to have a distinct and [illegible] of what they want—a sort of scale of [illegible] which will greatly aid them in the selection [illegible] may fully satisfy the requirements [illegible] schedule, but it will be found [illegible] to, to fix in the mind what is [illegible] and approach it as nearly as possible [illegible] the following points to be looked to [illegible] residence in the country Facility of access [illegible] and its character. Location as to [illegible] educational and religious facilities [illegible] of prospect, exposure as to winds character [illegible] itself. Prospective value of the [illegible] facilities for purchasing family supplies [illegible]

[illegible] ON IT.—We defy the world to produce a more lively volunteer fire department than [illegible] in this town. Of late alarms have been [illegible] No unusual occurrence of light [illegible] place that some of the boys do not display [illegible] last evening, the Second Street Foundry [illegible] a little past 9 with work, concluded to [illegible] a blast. No sooner had they fired up the [illegible] and turned on the tuyeres, than the alarm [illegible] was given The extraordinary light, from the [illegible] quarter, in the dark was sufficient grounds [illegible] an alarm, and the boys determined to be safe [illegible] in time of a conflagration The engines [illegible] again returned to their houses.

[illegible] Music.—The following is the programme [illegible] to be played by the 23d Infantry Band [illegible] on the plaza at 2.30 P M

1. The Constitution March
2. The Sleigh Polka.—Julien
3. Selections from Il Barbiere di Liviglia —
4. Grand Armies Quadrille —Julien
5. Cavatina from Roberto Devereux —Donizetti
6. Beautiful Bell Waltz
7. Love Among the Roses
8. Death of the Half Galop

[illegible] It seems to us that by this time a [illegible] made of the streets of this city [illegible] trouble the bellman sounding a fire [illegible] it in an intelligent manner We [illegible] that the vicinity could be found out, [illegible] running hither and thither at random [illegible] alarm the want of some such system is [illegible]

AN OLD TIMER.—We spied on Second street yesterday the familiar face of an old timer under the same peculiarities of those days when he was wont to be known as a peace disturber We queried Has that man been in Portland all this time and has he had his period of drunks ever since 1865? A friend answered that this was the first time he had recognized the unfortunate fellow for at least three years He was essaying to make a speech the old thing bank differences and felt no manner of astonishment at his utter failures to articulate

WORK BEGUN Work was begun yesterday by Mr Caywood upon the excavation for the four brick buildings on Front street between B and C streets The frame building adjacent to the store of Messrs Allan & Lewis will be removed to the corner of the block opposite The lime house which is in the way will also be removed The brick buildings will cover a space of 85 by 100 feet two stories in hight with basement

A CHANGE.—Quite weather is it not? Home what so we must confess yet more seasonable than what we experienced a few days ag The light fall of snow on Saturday night last gave a deadedly wintry look to all out door matters but then old Sol was after it the next day and robbed it of its beauty and usefulness leaving in its stead a fine Oregon mist —never mind

MOVING OFF.—The wooden tenements at present covering the site of the proposed block of stores to be erected on First street between Washington and Alder streets this spring for Hon H W Corbett will soon be on the move down town They will be taken to the vacant lots on the river side of Front street near the foot of Alder street

UNITED STATES COURTS.—The United States District Court for the District of Oregon Judge M P Deady adjourned yesterday until the 28th instant. In the U S Circuit Court Deady J in the case of J R Lamb et al vs Isaac B Smith and T J Carter was argued on a demurrer to the bill and submitted to the Court

PERSONAL.—Among the passengers by the Mossa Taylor last evening, were Capt A P Ankeny, who has been absent for some time in California and elsewhere also Hon P C Sullivan of Polk county

EAST PORTLAND.—We paid East Portland a brief visit yesterday Matters over there appear to be moving along very quietly but surely

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL

Belle Boyd is on her way from San Francisco to Martinsburg, Va where her mother resides She is ill in body and mind and destitute About six weeks since she was discharged from the Insane Asylum at Stockton Cal uncured

There died on the 1st inst., in Norton Mass a veteran who voted for Washington and for all the Presidents down to Grant. His name was David Makepeace and he was 102 years old All of his long life he has been a constant smoker

The Maryland and Kentucky Democrats are at their wits' end (it isn't a long distance) to devise some method to prevent the franchisement of the negroes The only song they sing is Backward, turn backward O Time, in thy flight, and that is all of it they sing

Benj G Harris of Maryland who was once formally censured in Congress for a violent secession speech, is now preaching a crusade against the Fifteenth Amendment. He is disposed to fight if necessary, and, at any rate he thinks it should be kicked and trampled under foot every where in Maryland

The New York Post says that "whenever the Administration does anything the Democratic press never tires of denouncing and deriding the action, whenever it declines to do what the Democracy urge, they howl in concert that it is betraying all the dearest interests of the human race" This is as natural to tacticians as water running down hill We must grin and bear it"

The Wheeling Register urges the Democracy of West Virginia to accept negro suffrage as a fixed fact and act accordingly In fact upon a recent vote in the House of Delegates, twenty of the twenty four members declared by their votes that the negro suffrage question is practically settled and the Register says that their action was the best that could be taken under the circumstances and that it will be sustained not only by the Democrats but by the great body of the people of the State.

Gen Grant being unable to accept the invitation to attend a meeting in New York, to provide for the establishment of a home for disabled soldiers, sent a cordial letter, in which he said "The object is one that appeals to the heart of every one who sympathized and acted in the preservation of our great Republic I hope your meeting will be very successful, and that not only will New York provide for her heroes, but that each State that has not already done so will give the just aid to the band of deserving men, and also provide for the orphans of those who gave their lives to preserve the life of their Government"

No charge for instructions on the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine, whether you desire to purchase or not We Grover & Co., Agents

RAILROAD MATTERS are very likely to be lively this spring The East Side Company will engage a large force of men to complete their road to Albany and the West Side Company will very probably build a portion of their road in order to obtain a land grant to facilitate the building of their line to McMinnville Koho & Pinkel are keeping up with railroad times Their stock of spring goods coming across the continent by rail will be the largest and finest stock of Clothing ever imported to this State Their stock in store now is offered very low to make room for large arrivals They are manufacturing the most Boys Suits and always have on hand a large stock of the same which are offered at lowest figures

Bread and Stores delivered to any part of the City Orders from a distance carefully filled and promptly dispatched

The business hereafter will be conducted STRICTLY ON THE CASH PRINCIPLE

Retrenchment!

THE NUMBER OF GROCERY STORES IN PORTland is about to be increased with an average of three men to each and about twenty of them run delivery wagons making a total of one hundred and eighty men and twenty teams constantly employed wait upon eight thousand people Estimate the labor per man at three dollars per day in one year it would amount to $19 100 and the rents keeping of horses taxes, incidentals etc at three dollars per day for each store and we have $65 700 more making a total of $262 800 annually for expenses alone This is why the grocery men must make their twenty per cent or shut up shop

Now we can supply the city with groceries with a force of twenty men and four delivery wagons at an expense not exceeding $25 000 thereby saving $37 800 in expenses alone, which would enable us to sell goods at five per cent profit instead of twenty and make money $237 800 divided among 8 000 people would give $32 85 to every man woman and child which they could annually save by centralizing on

Shadows

When I see the long wild tresses
Waving in the winds like fires,
See the green skirts of the maples
Barred with scarlet and with gold
See the small wet heavy hearted
Shadows then from days departed
Come and with their tender trembles
Wrap me so soft fold on fold

I can hear sweet invitations
Through the sobbing and vibrations
Of the winds that follow follow
As from self I seek to fly—
Come up hither come up hither!
Leave the high and rainy weather!
Come up where the royal roses
Never fade and never die

'Twas when May was blushing blooming,
Brown bees bluebirds singing humming,
That we built and walled our chamber
With the emerald of the lawns;
Made our bed of yellow mosses,
Soft as pile of silken flosses,
Dreamed our dreams in dewy brightness
Radiant like the morns and eves

And it was when woods were gleaming,
And when clouds were wildly streaming
Gray and umber, white and amber,
Streaming in the north wind's breath,
That my little rose-mouthed blossom
Fell and faded in my bosom,
Cankered by the coming coldness,
Blighted by the frosts of death

Therefore when I see the shadows
Drifting in across the meadows,
See the troops of summer wildbirds
Flying from us, cloud on cloud,
Memory with that May-time lingers,
And I seem to feel the fingers
Of my lost and lovely darling
Wrap my heart up in her shroud
—Alice Carey in Harper's Magazine for March

Humorous.

For a felon—arrest and imprisonment.

For a stitch in the side pay your tailor's bill.

To avoid rheumatic pains—don't sleep in attic rooms.

To prevent the hair from becoming gray—dye instantly.

For a tightness of the chest—join a charitable association.

What medicine does a man take when he has a circus wife? Elixir.

Why is a flirt's heart like an omnibus? Because there is always room for one more.

To cure deafness in another—tell him you want to pay "that little bill" so long due to him.

Administer chick-weed to hens, dog-wood to pups, cat-sup to kittens, and pig-weed to swine.

To give tone to the stomach—get it lined with bell-metal. If the patient is a young lady—ring her.

To avoid bunions—be large-souled, and let your life-journey be a pleasant one, and not a Pilgrim's Progress.

A dandy inquired at a fruitstall, "Are these apples fit for a hog to eat?" Try one and see," said the woman

What is the difference between a farmer and a spendthrift? One gathers what he sows and the other sows what he gathers.

This tough steak makes me think of a famous old English poet." "That's queer. What poet does it make you think of?" "Chaucer."

A white boy met a colored lad the other day and asked him what he had such a short nose for. "I spect so it won't poke itself into other people's business."

"No man in England thinks" of blacking his own boots," said an Englishman to Mr. Lincoln. "Whose boots does he black?" Mr. Lincoln quietly asked.

A lazy fellow once declared in a public company that he could not find bread for his family; "nor I," replied an industrious mechanic, "I am obliged to work for it."

"What brought you to this prison, my colored friend?" "Two constables, sah." "Yes, but I mean had intemperance anything to do with it?" "Yes, sah, dey was both of 'em drunk."

To make little boys' trowsers last, when you make a suit of clothes for them, finish the seat first, and by so doing you will make the trowsers last. It is the only way the thing can be done.

A Milliner's Idea of Dress Parade.

Read the West Point Scrap Book, to which we recently alluded, we take the following in answer to inquiries received:

Perhaps the most pleasing sight at the "Point" is evening dress parade. It is 5 o'clock P. M., and the sun is just sinking behind the blue Highlands, when the drums at the barracks commence their evening call. Now from the sally-port cadets, attired in full military panoply, saunter forth and lounge in the vicinity of their respective companies. Now the drums beat once more, and almost coincidently a long row of "gray-coats" stand, as statues still and motionless, at "carry arms." The spruce orderly calls the roll. Each man as he answers "Here" comes to an "order." They are then formed in two ranks, and wait for the band to play them to the parade. The band now, in obedience to the wave of the baton of the drum-major, beats the "adjutant's call," and that functionary, attended by his "markers" and the sergeant-major, marches out to make the alignment. Now the captains assume the command; and while from the hand their streams a gush of music, the four companies march to their destination. Each company in its turn is aligned by its captain; and all are dressed by the adjutant. They then come with a smash to an "order;" and the band, after three preliminary strains, "beats off" down the front, behind a gamily-d—ned gentleman with a shuff on his head, and a red pudding-bag hanging out of the top thereof. In his hand he carries a tassalled cane, of a large size, which he wields as easily as a child would a straw. On arriving at the end of his journey, he turns about, and boring a hole in the centre of the band with his magical baton, disappears from view in the bowels thereof. Soon he emerges, red and pompous as ever; and the band by some mysterious movement known only to itself, apparently mix up in inextricable confusion in endeavoring to follow their leader. But now they come as regular order as before, and march back to their starting point. Arriving there, they play a psalm-tune, then give three strains more, and at the final one the evening gun is fired, the Stars and Stripes flutter to the ground, and the cadets are called to "attention" by the adjutant.

The battalion is now brought to a "rear open order," the adjutant walks stiffly down the front, flies to the right in a manner shockingly abrupt, faces to the battalion, and sings out "Sent harms!" An instantaneous clash, and every cadet private regards with specular eyes his polished gun-barrel The adjutant then faces about, and tells the "officer in charge" that the battalion is now at his service.

This dignitary waves his hand, and, as he draws forth his trusty blade, the adjutant marches to the left and rear of him The "officer in charge" now braces his sword close to his shoulder, grinds his heels together, and vociferates "Cree hump!" and the cadets once more "carry arms," with automaton-like precision The officer again yells "Charge peanuts!' and every private faces half to the right, and repels an imaginary foe, "Cree hump!" and they resume their former position, "Der hump!" and they come to an "order." The officer in charge sheathes his sword, the orderlies report, and the adjutant reads the orders— "Smied States Milta 'Cademy, 'S Pomt, 'en York, J'ly s'teenth, 'and sixty-four! 'Shal 'lorders 'umber two!" etc., etc.

Finally, the cadet officers march in a line to the "officer in charge," shake their fists in his face, and cut away with great precipitation on his retaining in a like manner

The companies who thus far have been regarding the above proceedings with stolid indifference, now "carry arms," and are marched off at "double time" by the orderly sergeant, the band disappears, and the spectators withdraw, no doubt highly edified with what they have seen, but especially with what they have heard.—Army and Navy Journal.

Official reports show 374 774 school children in Michigan, an increase of 20,021 over 1868 The number of school districts is 5,052, employing 354 male and 7,892 female teachers, and the school expenses for the year were $2,588,119.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND Tuesday March 22, 1870

A private telegram to-day states gold at 11[illegible] at New York

Portland Legal Tender rates, b&c.

Our dealers complain that the week opens dull not only in regard to trade but in the payment of interior bills There is certainly quite a falling off in the appearances of activity of the last week The unusual stir in jobbing circles last week was no doubt attributable to the fact that of the swarm of men in the city from Eastern Oregon, en route to the Albany convention, quite a large number were buyers of goods Now that they are gone, the city seems to an appearance of quiet which, in contrast with the past few days is marked There is no vessel in port which is attributive to the general quietude

There are no changes in quotations to note

The supply of produce on hand is smaller than for some months and the receipts for several days have been inconsiderable This however, does not result from any exhaustion of the interior supplies for upon the best attainable evidence there can be no doubt that there are still large amounts yet remaining in the country for export

The receipts to day are Apples, 84 bxs, Bacon 5 cs Eggs, 97 bxs Pig Iron, 2 t cs, Oil, 30 cs; Shingles 22 sks, Wheat, 596

The Mountaineer reports the sale at the Dalles of forty head of cows at $40, and one hundred head of steers at $45 per head to parties at Victoria and San Juan The same paper says.

"From Mr Miller, who came in yesterday from the Ochoco Valley, we learn that the great snow storm of last week did not reach as far south as that valley His reports everything in that section as being in a flourishing condition and the weather as having been extremely mild during the past winter "

Reports from Walla Walla and some portions of Eastern Oregon, are to the effect that the fruit buds are generally injured, and in some places totally blasted by the late frosts "The fruit crop will evidently be short unless the buds shall prove to have been less hurt than present appearances indicate

Mining Intelligence.

A letter from Cedar Creek, Feb 1st, says All the indications at the present time give promise of a rich camp but it cannot be determined before June owing to the almost inaccessible character of portions of the country It had been raining for eight days, but the snow remained from two to three feet deep in Oregon gulch Thirty-five buildings complete and some seventy five or eighty in course of construction comprise the town. The tide of stampeders has run its race, very few arriving, which makes the camp look quiet and trade dull

A private letter from South Pass City, Wyoming Territory, Feb 22d, says that the Carlso mine, near that place, which is in the Sweetwater mining district, has yielded 405 ounces of gold, of the value of $9 000, from 74 tons of quartz—the result of six days' working with a six-stamp mill. A stampede to this district is anticipated.

Eastern Market's Comparative Prices of Woolen Goods.

A statement, called out by correspondence, was recently made by the house of Perry, Wendell, Fay & Co, commission merchants of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, of the prices of woolen fabrics of the present, as compared with those of the same goods in 1860. The following is the statement in brief

Standard Woolens	Prices in Gold 1860	In C'y 1870
Having mixed all wool Doeskins, 12 to 13 oz	80a85c	80a85c
Munson Satinets (standard)	40a45	60a 65
Stafford ville Satinets	60a65	90a95
Printed Sattinets	25a30½	40a42½
10-4 Holland Blankets, 4½ lbs	$3 25	$5 00
11-4 Holland Blankets, 4¾ lbs	4 75	6 75
"Talbot" B. Scarlet Flannel, ¾ (standard)	26	30
"P & C." Twill Scarlet Flannel ⅝ (standard)	34	45
Richmond Ky Jeans (standard)	26	32½
Washington Ky Jeans (standard)	27	34
Palmetto Kentucky Jeans	14	18
St. Lawrence Plaids	21a22	28½
Leicester Tweeds (standard)	62½	85
Waterloo Blanket Shawls	5 00	7 50
Hevid's 9-4 Printed Table-covers	87½	$2½
Mixed and plain Cashmerettes	50a55	52½a60
Beaver all wool Cassimeres	55a60	57a52
Shaw diagonal all wool Cassimeres, 10 to 11 oz	80a85	75a80
Evans double and twist, 8 oz., all wool	75	90
Middlesex Doeskins	1 10	1 25
Middlesex Doeskins	1 00	1 15
Middlesex Shawls	7 00	7 00
Washington Backings	1 05	1 15
Glenham Backings	1 05	1 10
Glenham Repellents	1 15	1 20

This list shows that, notwithstanding much of the wool worked into the manufactures of 1860 was cheap foreign wool, and though skilled labor and taxation are higher now than then, American woolen fabrics are actually of less cost than they were ten years ago

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of Twelve Years' Standing—Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, Conn, Dec 15, 1869

Dear Sir—It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself I do not know hardly how to express myself I have been for the past ten years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others The complaint was the "Gravel" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make every every minute, but could not Have consulted doctors both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any and got worse and worse, and the last month was so bad that I could scarcely get about I could not rest night or day It would run down my leg with me, if I had not soon your advertisement in the Hartford Courant headed, "Kidneys" I read it through, and thought I would try it, purchased a bottle but mind you, had not much faith in it Why ah said I, when I had been trying so many things, and cost me so much? Well I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad, but I had finished it and got another By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad I fell sick before I had finished the second, that I had made up my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all the time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city He said it was the neck of the bladder and I should have to undergo an operation He gave me medicine and I went home quite discouraged On Sunday I was unable to go to church I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the Buchu, and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, and could not About one hour after I tried again, with the same result, but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off again It was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel I examined it, and it is the tightest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little places which collected together. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as a flint So you see the Buchu was doing its work although I was feeling so badly, I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind but since that time I have passed, which in eight weeks ago last Sunday I have been as well as ever I was in my life I have the stone securely wrapped, and that or who have seen the stone in this place are surprised at its size I could but this is a true story of my case and you are at liberty to make such use of my name as you think proper I am pretty well known in Berkshire also in Connecticut The advertisement saved me Why not publish more? The Springfield Republican is a widespread paper If any one wishes to see this wonder they can do so I could write all day, but think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well wisher EDWARD I. H. T. HELMBOLD'S

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

The Great Diuretic.

THIS PREPARED IN STRICT ACCORDANCE with the directions of the Pharmacopœia, and is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a curative by all medical works for such diseases as are recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor free from all injurious properties and is taken by adults and children. It is their direct relief and perfect cure. Enfeebled and delicate females of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

No medical properties contained in Bloy-senatory of the United States which the full value is not extracted by this process.

BUCHU. Its odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish and analogous to that of mint. It is given beneficially in complaints of the urinary organs such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, most local irritation of the bladder and urethra, diseases of the prostate gland and retention or the incontinence of urine from paralysis of the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism cutaneous affections and dropsy

TESTIMONY.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years' Standing Stone Passed and to be Seen

SAVANNAH, Tenn., May 14, 1869

Dr H T HELMBOLD—Dear Sir We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this country about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders A man in our county named J B Estell had been suffering about five years with gravel About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the Buchu in his house again Your preparations are gaining favor every day

Very respectfully yours &c

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of Long Standing—Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTBY Conn Sept 5, 1869

H T HELMBOLD, Esq Dear Sir—I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys I have suffered by spells very much for a few days past But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu" A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with so hard I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it I have great faith in its curative powers

Yours, truly, THOMAS J BENNETT

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy eight Years of Age,

THANKS TO MR. HELMBOLD

GIRARD, Pa, March 31, 1869

Editor Cosmopolite I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians and trying nearly all the best advertised remedies in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using, with little faith and no apparent beneficial results, for about a month At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly seventy-eight years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact as an acknowledgment to him and a valuable suggestion to the public Yours respectfully,
